TRADING-WAIVER PERIODS

The only period during which waivers are required for the trading of players from one Major League club to another, is from August 1st until the day after the close of the championship season.

USE OF DESIGNATED HITTER

Rule 6.10 provides that "Any League may elect to use the Designated Hitter Rule." (a) In the event of inter-league competition between any clubs of Leagues using the Designated Hitter Rule and clubs of Leagues not using the Designated Hitter Rule, the rule will be used as follows:

1. In exhibition games, the rule will be used or not used as in the practice of the home team.
2. In All-Star games, the rule will only be used if both teams and both Leagues so agree.

DESIGNATED HITTER FOR THE PITCHER RULE

(Adopted by the American League for the 1973 season.)

A hitter may be designated to bat for the starting pitcher and all subsequent pitchers in any game without otherwise affecting the status of the pitcher(s) in the game. A Designated Hitter for the pitcher must be selected prior to the game and must be included in the lineup cards presented to the Umpire-in-Chief.

The designated hitter named in the starting lineup must come to bat at least one time, unless the opposing club changes pitchers.

It is not mandatory that a club designate a hitter for the pitcher, but failure to do so prior to the game precludes the use of a Designated Hitter for that game.

Pinch hitters for a Designated Hitter may be used. Any substitute hitter for a Designated Hitter himself becomes a Designated Hitter. A replaced Designated Hitter shall not re-enter the game in any capacity.

The Designated Hitter may be used defensively, continuing to bat in the same position in the batting order, but the pitcher must then bat in the place of the substituted defensive player, unless more than one substitution is made, and the manager then must designate their spots in the batting order.

A Designated Hitter is "locked" into the batting order. No multiple substitutions may be made that will alter the batting rotation of the Designated Hitter.

Once the game pitcher is switched from the mound to a defensive position this move shall terminate the DH role for the remainder of the game.

Once a pinch-hitter bats for any player in the batting order and then enters the game to pitch, this move shall terminate the Designated Hitter role for the remainder of the game.

Once the game pitcher bats for the Designated Hitter this move shall terminate the Designated Hitter role for the remainder of the game.

SUSPENDED GAME RULE

Rule 4.12 SUSPENDED GAMES

(a) A league shall adopt the following rules providing for completion at a future date of games terminated for any of the following reasons:

(1) A curfew imposed by law;

(2) A time limit permissible under league rules;

(3) Light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club. (Mechanical field device shall include automatic tarpaulin or water removal equipment.);

(4) Darkness because of any law, the lights may not be turned on;

(5) Weather, if the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, and one of the following situations prevails:

(i) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score, and the home team has not scored.

(ii) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead, and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

(b) Such games shall be known as suspended games. No game called because of a curfew, weather, or a time limit shall be a suspended game unless it has progressed far enough to have been a regulation game under the provisions of Rule 4.10. A game called under the provisions of 4.12(a)(3) or (4) shall be a suspended game at any time after it starts.

(c) By amending NOTE to read as follows:

NOTE: Weather and similar conditions—4.12(a) (1 through 5)—shall take precedence in determining whether a called game shall be a suspended game. A game can only be considered a suspended game if stopped for any of the five (5) reasons specified in Section (a). Any legal game called due to weather with the score tied (unless situation outlined in 4.12(a)(5)(i) prevails) is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

(c) A suspended game shall be resumed and completed as follows:

(1) Immediately preceding the next scheduled single game between the two clubs on the same grounds;
or

(2) Immediately preceding the next scheduled double-header between the two clubs on the same grounds, if no single game remains on the schedule, or

(3) If suspended on the last scheduled date between the two clubs in the city, transferred and played on the grounds of the opposing club, if possible;

(i) Immediately preceding the next scheduled single game, or

(ii) Immediately preceding the next scheduled double-header, if no single game remains on the schedule.

(4) If a suspended game has not been resumed and completed on the last date scheduled for the two clubs, it shall be a called game.

(d) A suspended game shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension of the original game. The completion of a suspended game is a continuation of the original game. The lineup and batting order of both teams shall be exactly the same as the lineup and batting order at the moment of suspension, subject to the rules governing substitution. Any player may be replaced by a player who had been in the game prior to the suspension. No player removed before the suspension may be returned to the lineup. A player who was not with the club when the game was suspended may be used as a substitute, even if he has taken the place of a player no longer with the club who would not have been eligible because he had been removed from the lineup before the game was suspended.

A called game ends at the moment the umpire terminates play. EXCEPTION: If the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, the game becomes a SUSPENDED game in each of the following situations:

(1) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score and the home team has not scored.

(2) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

PLAYER LIMITS: The active player limit from opening day through August 31 is 25 players, and 40 players from September 1 through the end of the season. The minimum number of active players maintained by each club throughout the Championship Season shall be 25.

ROOKIE QUALIFICATIONS: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he had (a) exceeded 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of a 25-player limit (excluding time in the military service and time on the disabled list).

"SAVE" RULE

(Adopted on recommendation of the BBWAA)

Rule 10.20 SAVES FOR RELIEF PITCHERS

Credit a Pitcher with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:

(1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club; and

(2) He is not the winning pitcher; and

(3) He qualified under one of the following conditions:

(a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning.

(b) He enters the game, regardless of the count, with the potential tying run either on base, or at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces); or

(c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

AMERICAN LEAGUE CURFEW RULE

All night games must be called at 1:00 AM local time. But if an inning is started prior to 1:00 AM, local time, it can be completed . . . Curfews shall be waived for the final series of the season in each of the two parks of two contesting teams . . . This is the only curfew in the American League.

PLAYERS TO WEAR EAR FLAPS

All National Association players will wear double ear flaps. Major League players are urged to wear the double ear flap protection, but are obliged only to wear the single ear flap (except all players not wearing ear flaps in 1982 are not compelled to do so now.)

KEY TO MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE

A year of Major League service is equivalent to 172 days of the playing season. On the Red Book roster pages, the column at the right indicates the length of the player's service. A designation reading "6.012" means six years and twelve days of M.L. service.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAKS

A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

The player's individual consecutive-game hitting streak shall be determined by the consecutive games in which the player appears and is not determined by his club's games.

ROBERT W. BROWN, M.D.

American League President

Robert W. (Dr. Bobby) Brown, M.D., a cardiologist in Fort Worth, Texas, and former New York Yankee third baseman, has served as President of the American League of Professional Baseball Clubs since January of 1984, when he succeeded the retiring Lee MacPhail.

He entered Stanford University as an undergraduate student in September, 1942, and subsequently enlisted in the U.S. Navy as World War II was in progress. At the conclusion of World War II, he signed a professional baseball contract with the New York Yankees. While maintaining his medical studies, he played with Newark (International League) in 1946, batting .341, and joined the New York Yankees in September, 1946. He combined his medical and baseball careers until he retired from baseball July 1, 1954.

He interned at the Southern Pacific Hospital 1950-1952, and completed a residency in internal medicine during the years 1954-1957. From 1957-1958, he did a Fellowship in Cardiology at Tulane.

In July, 1952, he was called back into the service and was a Battalion Surgeon with the 160th Field Artillery, 45th Division, Korea. He entered the private practice of cardiology in Fort Worth, Texas, in August, 1958, and practiced there until February 1, 1984.

Bobby played with the Yankees until mid-1954 after being called up from Newark in 1946. He retired with a lifetime batting average of .279, despite missing most spring trainings and being in the U.S. Army for 20 months. He was in four World Series, getting 18 hits in 41 times at bat, for a .439 average. Nine of his 18 hits were for extra bases and his slugging percentage was .707. Among players with 40 or more World Series at-bats, Bobby's .439 average ranks first all-time; his .707 slugging percentage ranks fourth behind Reggie Jackson, Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig. His three pinch hits and a walk in the 1947 World Series established a Series record. In the 1949 Series against the Dodgers, he hit .500 and in Game 4, he got the key hit—a triple with the bases loaded. In Game 1 of the 1950 Series, he doubled in the seventh inning and subsequently scored the only run of the game.

Bobby is a member of the Stanford, Tulane and UCLA Athletic Halls of Fame, where he played varsity baseball. In addition, he is a member of the Galileo High School and San Francisco Prep Halls of Fame.

Entering the final year of his Presidency, the American League had won five World Series and five All-Star Games; and had set an all-time attendance record for a professional sports league—including the first Major League team ever (Toronto in 1991) to attract four million fans in a season.

At press time, American League Umpire Steve Palermo was still undergoing extensive rehabilitation for the spinal cord injury sustained by a gunshot wound. The accident occurred when Steve came to the aid of a robbery victim outside a Dallas, Texas, restaurant, on the morning of July 7, 1991.

With the aid and support of his wife, Debbie, and against the odds, Steve has made excellent progress physically. In addition they have founded the Steve Palermo Foundation for Spinal Cord Injuries, to help and support other victims of these disabling injuries.

All of us in the American League are proud of Steve. This year's Red Book is dedicated to him, with all our good wishes for a continued recovery.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

JOHNNY OATES—Born January 21, 1946, Sylva, NC; Residence: Colonial Heights, VA; Married (Gloria), three children . . . Height: six feet; Weight: 185 pounds . . . Named Orioles' Manager on May 23, '91, replacing Frank Robinson.

Named 10th Orioles manager, May 23, '91, Johnny Oates is new only in terms of major league experience (his record is 54-71). However, he has had success as a manager in each of his rungs up the minor league ladder and has a fine reputation for his organization and thoroughness. Now he has the opportunity to apply his methods at the major league level.

Oates admitted he began preparing for a manager's position while still an active player in a major league career which lasted between 1970-81 with Baltimore, Atlanta, Philadelphia, Los Angeles and New York (AL).

He served his apprenticeship by sitting near Tommy Lasorda of the Dodgers and constantly asking questions. Also, he benefitted from the experience of Cal Ripken Sr., the renowned master of teaching baseball "The Oriole Way."

Oates began his managerial career in the Yankees' farm system, and most recently piloted an Orioles minor league team. He was 237-188 (.558) in three seasons as a manager at Nashville (AA) in 1982, Columbus (AAA) in 1983 and Rochester (AAA) in 1988. Oates experienced immediate success as a manager, winning titles in each of his three years.

Following his major league career, Oates also was a coach with the Chicago Cubs (1984-87) before returning to the O's at the major league level as the first base coach in 1989.

Upon Oates' promotion to manager, the O's lost 7-1 vs. New York and dropped his first four games at the helm (the last three each by one run). The team rebounded to win 5 of 6, but then were swept in a 3-game series at Minnesota, again each loss by one run. Under Oates the Orioles were 16-30 in one run games, 38-41 otherwise.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

CLELL LAVERN "BUTCH" HOBSON—Born August 17, 1951, Tuscaloosa, AL . . . Resides: Aliceville, AL . . . Married: Krystine (Krys), four children . . . Height: six feet, one inch: Weight: 190 pounds . . . Named Red Sox 38th manager on October 8, 1991.

1991 was Hobson's first year as a AAA manager, after spending the previous two years as manager of AA New Britain (East L.). The PawSox made a dramatic turnaround under Hobson, going from last place in 1990 to first place in 1991. Hobson won Int. L. Manager of the Year honors and was selected by "Baseball America" as overall minor league Manager of the Year.

Hobson juggled 41 different players.

In 1990 Hobson guided the BritSox to the final round of the Eastern L. playoffs after the club finished in 4th place during the regular season with a 72-67 mark. The last three falls he helped coach the Red Sox Florida Instructional League team. In five years as a minor league manager Hobson had a 349-345 .503 regular season record, including 151-131 .535 the last two years.

New Britain was 8th in Hobson's first season as manager but finished just 61/2 games behind 4th place Reading with a 13-game improvement for a 80-76 record. During that winter he played 3B for the Winter Haven Super Sox in the Senior Pro League.

Hobson was named New Britain manager Jan. 5, 1989. Butch returned to the Red Sox where he played from 1975 through 1980. He also played for the Angels in 1981 and the Yankees in 1982. In 1983-85 he played for the Yankees' triple A team at Columbus and was released during spring training of 1986. He sat out that year before he became manager for the Mets Class A affiliate Columbia in the South Atlantic League in 1987-88. In 1988 he guided the Mets to a 74-63, .540 record in the league. Columbia finished 2nd during the 2nd half of the season with a 36-31 mark. In 1987 the team was 64-75, .460.

Butch played both baseball and football at the University of Alabama. He was backup QB to Terry Davis for "Bear" Bryant's "wishbone" offense in 1972 that culminated in the Orange Bowl vs. Nebraska for the national championship.

Hobson's father, Clell, Sr., was a three-year letterman at QB at Alabama, 1950-52. Butch played football for his dad at Bessemer (Ala.) High School and was named to the All-Jefferson County team as a senior. He also played basketball and baseball for Bessemer.

Butch was the Red Sox 8th pick in the 1973 June draft. He played two games with the Red Sox at the end of 1975 then came back again June 28, 1976. That night he hit an inside-the-park HR in Fenway off Rudy May of Balt. From 1977 -79 Hobson hit 75 HR and had 285 RBI. He still holds the Red Sox season record for HR (30) and RBI (112) for a third baseman set in 1977 when he batted mostly ninth. In 1979 Butch slammed 28 HR and had 93 RBI. In six seasons with the Red Sox he hit .252 in 623 games with 94 HR and 358 RBI. Eight M.L. seasons produced a .248 avg. with 96 HR and 397 RBI.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

GEORGE LEE (Sparky) ANDERSON—Born February 22, 1934, Bridgewater, SD; Residence: Thousand Oaks, CA . . . Married (Carol), three children . . . Height: five feet nine inches; Weight: 170 pounds . . . Became 28th manager of the Tigers, replacing Les Moss during the 1979 season.

Sparky Anderson is moving closer to the top. With 79 wins in 1992, Sparky can become just the 7th manager in history to reach the magic 2000 mark. He enters the season in 8th place, just 5 wins behind the legendary Casey Stengel. For managers with at least 10 years experience, Sparky ranks 8th in winning percentage at .558. Named Manager of the Year in both leagues, he is the only manager history to win a World Series in both leagues. Sparky's teams have produced 1058 victories during his 13 year tenure in Detroit. Only Hughie Jennings with 1131 has more. Before joining the Tigers in 1979, Sparky led the Cincinnati Reds to five National League West Division titles, four pennants and back-to-back World Series championships in 1975-76. He came to Detroit on June 12, 1979, and now holds the position of Dean of American League managers. Sparky played several years in the minor leagues and played for the Philadelphia Phillies in 1959.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

Became the 40th manager in Major League history to win 1,000 games when the A's beat Baltimore 3-2 in 11 innings, 7/14/91. Won 500th game with Oakland and no one has managed the Oakland A's for more games (889) or to more victories (516). Tony's .580 winning percentage as the A's skipper is second only to Dick Williams' .603 mark with Oakland. From 1988-90, the A's led the major leagues in victories, only the 11th time in baseball history a team has accomplished that feat. During that span, La Russa's A's became the first to win three consecutive AL pennants since the 1976-78 Yankees. The A's 1989 World Championship was the fourth for the Athletics since moving to Oakland in 1968, but Tony's first as a major league manager; a career that spans 12 plus seasons. La Russa's career record stands at 1038-883, a .540 winning percentage. Among current major league managers only Detroit's Sparky Anderson (.558) has a better career winning percentage than Tony . . . Signed to his first pro contract with the then Kansas City A's on the night he graduated from high school in 1962. He made his major league debut just one year later with the A's. Tony went on to play professionally for 16 seasons, but never once spent the entire year in the majors. After his stint with the Kansas City in 1963, Tony didn't make it to the majors again until 1968, this time with the A's of Oakland. He went on to play parts of four years in Oakland before finishing out his playing career with Atlanta and the Chicago Cubs . . . Tony's managerial career began in 1972, when he took over the White Sox' Double-A team in Knoxville. That year his team went 53-25, earning Tony promotion to the White Sox' coaching staff. At the beginning of 1979, Tony was named the manager of the Sox Triple-A squad in Iowa, but that position didn't last long. On August 2nd of that year, Tony took over the helm of the White Sox, replacing Don Kessinger. Over the next seven years, he established himself as one of the top managers in the majors. His most successful year with the Sox' was 1983 when the club posted a 99-63 record, which was the best in baseball that season. He was rewarded for his effort that year by being named "Manager of the Year" by The Sporting News, the Associated Press and The Baseball Writers Association of America. He had the '84 Sox tied for first place at the All-Star break, before finishing 5th with a 74-88 record. Tony was relieved of his duties with the White Sox on June 19, 1986, and assumed the manager's role in Oakland on July 7th, 1986. In just his second full year with the A's, 1988, Tony managed the club to an AL West record 104 victories, the AL pennant and into the World Series. For his efforts that season he once again earned the BBWAA and The Sporting News Manager of the Year honors . . . A graduate of Florida State University's School of Law in 1978, Tony passed the bar exam in December of 1979. He is one of only five lawyer/managers in baseball history. The other four—Monte Ward (New York Giants and Brooklyn Dodgers, late 1800s), Hughie Jennings (Detroit, 1907-20), Miller Huggins (St. Louis Cardinals and New York Yankees, 1913-29) and Branch Rickey (St. Louis Browns, 1914-15)—are all in the Baseball Hall of Fame.

1991 AMERICAN LEAGUE SEASON IN REVIEW

APR. 8— The M.L. Umpires Association and the two leagues reached agreement on the terms of a new four-year Basic Agreement which ended a two-day exhibition game work action by Major League Umpires.

APR. 13— The California Angels set a new American League record and tied the Major League mark by throwing six wild pitches in one game. Three pitchers, Scott Lewis (2), Jeff Robinson (3), and Scott Bailes (1) combined to set the record in a 15-9 victory over the Minnesota Twins at the Metrodome.

MAY 1— The Milwaukee Brewers defeated the Chicago White Sox, 10-9, in a six-hour, five-minute contest that spanned 19 innings. It was the longest game ever which involved the Brewers at County Stadium, and it was the longest A.L. game since the same clubs played at Comiskey in 1984.

Oakland's Rickey Henderson stole the 939th base of his career against the New York battery of Tim Leary and Matt Nokes to become the all-time stolen base king. The historic moment came in the bottom of the fourth when Henderson slid safely into third base.

Nolan Ryan hurled an unprecedented seventh career no-hitter, as the Rangers defeated the Toronto Blue Jays, 3-0, at Arlington Stadium. Ryan, 44, is the oldest player to throw a no-hitter, and he also holds the record for most no-hit games in a career. His strikeouts for the game totalled 16.

MAY 4— Cleveland's Chris James set a club record by driving in nine runs as the Indians routed the Oakland Athletics, 20-6, at the Coliseum. James became only the 15th player in history to have nine or more RBI in a game, and the feat had not been accomplished since 1985, when Eddie Murray drove in nine runs for the Orioles.

MAY 10— Toronto's Roberto Alomar became the 85th player in M.L. history to homer from both sides of the plate in the same game, at SkyDome.

MAY 15— Milwaukee's Paul Molitor became only the fourth player in the club's history to hit for the cycle in a 4-2 victory over the Minnesota Twins at the Metrodome.

The Boston Red Sox defeated the Chicago White Sox, 9-6, in a game that lasted 4 hours, 11 minutes, at Fenway Park. It was the longest nine-inning night game in Major League history.

President George Bush accompanied Queen Elizabeth II to her first Major League baseball game, a 6-3 victory for the Oakland Athletics over the Baltimore Orioles, at Memorial Stadium.

MAY 20— Boston's Jeff Reardon earned his 300th career "save" to move into a third-place tie on the all-time list with Bruce Sutter, as the Red Sox defeated the Milwaukee Brewers, 3-0, at Fenway Park.

JUNE 6— The Kansas City Royals and the Texas Rangers combined to issue an A.L. record seven intentional walks in a 6-hour, 28-minute game that lasted 18 innings. The Royals received a club-record six intentional walks in the contest, which they won, 4-3.

JUNE 12— Mexico natives Teddy Higuera of the Milwaukee Brewers and Fernando Valenzuela of the California Angels faced each other for the first time in their M.L. careers. Higuera pitched six shutout innings and struck out 10, while Valenzuela gave up five runs in 1⅔ innings. The Brewers won, 8-0, at Anaheim.

JULY 2— Nolan Ryan struck out Oakland's Willie Wilson in the fourth inning of Texas' 9-6 victory at Arlington, giving him 100 strikeouts for the 22nd consecutive season. Ryan broke Don Sutton's M.L. record of 21 straight.

JULY 6— Danny Tartabull became the first Kansas City player to homer three times in a game at Royals Stadium. The Royals lost to the Oakland Athletics, 9-7.

Boston's Jeff Reardon picked up his 308th career "save" to move into second place on the all-time list (behind Rollie Fingers) in a 7-4 Red Sox victory over the Detroit Tigers at Fenway Park.

JULY 7— American League umpire Steve Palermo was shot in the back while attempting to stop a robbery outside a Dallas restaurant.

JULY 9— Oakland's Tony La Russa became the first All-Star manager to win three consecutive All-Star Games, and reliever Dennis Eckersley became the first reliever to save three in a row in the A.L.'s 4-2 victory.

JULY 14— The Kansas City Royals hit six home runs to set a club record in their 18-4 win over the Detroit Tigers at Tiger Stadium.

JULY 17— Baltimore's Sam Horn struck out six times to tie the M.L. record for strikeouts in an extra-inning game, as the Royals beat the Orioles, 9-8, in 15 innings.

JULY 23— Baltimore's Randy Milligan, Seattle's Ken Griffey, Jr., Kansas City's Todd Benzinger and Pittsburgh's Gary Redus each hit grand slams to tie the record for grand slams (4) hit during a Major League day.

Nolan Ryan set a major league record with his 545th consecutive start without a relief appearance, in the Rangers' 5-4 victory over the Boston Red Sox, at Arlington.

JULY 30— Boston's Carlos Quintana became the 11th player in M.L. history to drive in six runs in an inning when he hit a grand slam and a two-run double in the third inning of the Red Sox' 11-6 victory over the Texas Rangers at Fenway.

Milwaukee's Paul Molitor got his 2,000th career hit and the Brewers defeated the Kansas City Royals, 9-3, at County Stadium.

AUG. 8— The Toronto Blue Jays' pitching staff set a team record by striking out 21 batters in an extra-inning game (14) in a 4-0 loss to the Detroit Tigers at SkyDome.

AUG. 11— Twenty-one-year-old Wilson Alvarez of the Chicago White Sox pitched a 7-0 no-hitter against the Baltimore Orioles at Memorial Stadium. It was the second major league start of Alvarez' career.

AUG. 13— The Baltimore Orioles used 13 pitchers to tie a major-league record for pitchers used during a doubleheader, and they also won both games against the Texas Rangers at Memorial Stadium.

AUG. 15— Detroit's Alan Trammell collected his 2,000th career hit in the Tigers' 6-4 victory over the Chicago White Sox at Tiger Stadium.

AUG. 26— Kansas City's Bret Saberhagen pitched the first no-hitter of his career as the Royals shut out the Chicago White Sox, 7-0, at Royals Stadium. Saberhagen struck out five and walked two in the sixth no-hitter of the 1991 M.L. season.

SEPT. 12— Texas starter Nolan Ryan became only the second big league pitcher to reach double digits in victories in 20 different seasons as the Rangers edged the Minnesota Twins, 4-3, at Arlington.

SEPT. 29— The Minnesota Twins became the first team in major league history to go from last place to first place in back-to-back seasons.

OCT. 2— The Toronto Blue Jays became the first team in Major League history to draw 4,000,000 fans in a single season.

OCT. 13— The Minnesota Twins defeated the Toronto Blue Jays, 8-5, at SkyDome in Game 5 of the ALCS to win the American League Pennant. It was the first time in history that a team won a League title after finishing last the previous season.

OCT. 27— The Minnesota Twins defeated the Atlanta Braves, 1-0, in 10 innings to win Game 7 of the 1991 World Series. Both teams had finished last in their respective divisions the year before, and the Twins became the first team to earn the distinction of going from last place to World Series Champions in consecutive seasons.

AMERICAN LEAGUE STADIUMS

Eastern Division

1. Baseball has been played on the site of Tiger Stadium since 1900. Bennett Park at that time, it became Navin Field in 1912, Briggs Stadium in 1938, and Tiger Stadium on January 1, 1961.

2. Construction began on Fenway Park in 1911 and the park was ready for the opening game of the 1912 season. It replaced Boston's Huntington Avenue Grounds.

3. Yankee Stadium in New York has been the home of the Yankees since its opening in 1923. The stadium underwent a complete modernization during the 1974 and '75 seasons and reopened in 1976. Original construction began in 1922 and lights were installed in 1946.

4. Work was started on Cleveland Stadium—the largest stadium seating capacity in baseball—in 1930 and completed in 1931. The first game was played there on July 31, 1932, but after 1933 the Indians returned to League Park until 1947 when they moved to Cleveland Stadium on a permanent basis.

5. The construction of Milwaukee's County Stadium was first proposed in 1920, but it wasn't until 1950 that excavation work began. Construction of additional seating brought the capacity from 36,011 to 43,394 in 1953. The outfield wall was constructed in 1960 and further changes came in the early 70's, increasing the capacity again to approximately 53,000.

6. The Toronto Blue Jays began play in their new Toronto SkyDome on June 5, 1989 vs. the Milwaukee Brewers. Previously, the Jays played their home games in Exhibition Stadium since their inception into the league in 1977. The SkyDome seats approximately 50,000 and is equipped with a retractable roof.

Western Division
(In order of seniority)

1. In 1964 Turnpike Stadium was constructed for the Dallas-Ft. Worth Spurs of the Texas League to play in for the 1965 season. Its capacity was 10,600. When the Washington Senators transferred and became the Texas Rangers, Turnpike was renamed Arlington Stadium. The stadium was enlarged twice since then to reach its present capacity of about 43,000.

2. California's Anaheim Stadium was completed in 1966. New construction completed in 1980 to accomodate the NFL Rams increased seating capacity to 67,335 for baseball and nearly 70,000 for football.

3. Ground was broken for the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum in April of 1964 with the first stadium event being held there in September of 1966. The 1968 season saw the Athletics come to Oakland and the Coliseum.

4. Royals Stadium in Kansas City was built exclusively for baseball in 1973 with the opening day being on April 12 of that year.

5. The Kingdome in Seattle began being built in November of 1972 and was completed in 1976. A year later the expansion Seattle Mariners played in the Kingdome as major league baseball returned to Seattle.

6. The Minnesota Twins moved to the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome in 1982. The Stadium seats 55,214 for baseball and about 63,000 for football.

7. New Comiskey Park opened on April 18, 1991 with the Detroit Tigers visiting the White Sox. It is located directly across the street from the original Comiskey Park.

MEMORIAL STADIUM

Construction of Baltimore Memorial Stadium began on the site of old Municipal Stadium in 1949. A single-deck concrete grandstand with no roof was completed in '50 with 20,000 chair seats, and home plate was moved from its original location (in what is now left field) to its present position. The stadium's external trappings were left unchanged. It was not yet a major league ballpark.

However, it was that facility which was officially dedicated and renamed "Memorial Stadium" when Major Tommy D'Alesandro, Jr. ("Old Tommy") threw out the first ball for the International League Orioles' '50 opener, (April 20).

In '53, bond loans were approved and work began anew. Despite the construction, the I.L. Orioles continued to play there through '53, as did the Baltimore Colts when they emigrated from Dallas (Texans) that same year.

Essentially, the new stadium, seating capacity approximately 47,700, was completed in October '53, but refinements continued through the spring of '54, the modern American League Orioles' first season in Baltimore. The cost of the project, built on 28¾ acres of city-owned property (and financed by two bond issues) was $6 million.

Through the years, the playing field has undergone significant dimensional changes. Inside the cavernous ballpark that greeted Orioles fans on opening day '54, home plate to dead center field measured 450 feet.

Since then the outfield boundaries have been altered four times ('56, '59, '62 & '76), gradually reducing the distance to straightaway center 45 feet (to 405 feet), and the power alleys accordingly.

ORIOLE PARK AT CAMDEN YARDS

Excavation for the new baseball-only downtown Baltimore ballpark began on an 85-acre site known as Camden Yards, a few blocks west of the Inner Harbor. The 46,500-seat facility is targeted for completion in time for opening day 1992.

Designed by Helmuth, Obata & Kassabaum (HOK) of Kansas City with considerable input from the Orioles and the owner of the facility, the Maryland Stadium Authority (MSA), the new ballpark will be state-of-the-art in its functions yet unique, old-fashioned and intimate in its architectural design, blending into the urban context of downtown Baltimore.

It will take its image from baseball parks built in the early 20th century, featuring steel (not concrete) trusses, an arched brick facade, a sun roof over the gentle slope of the upper deck, and an asymmetrical playing field. The cost of the facility is projected at $105.4 million.

A sophisticated new state-of-the-art drainage system will be installed beneath the natural grass playing field, a feature that should prevent some rainouts, reduce the frequency and shorten the length of rain delays, and substantially improve the footing in both the infield and outfield. The turf, incidentially, is already being custom grown on the Eastern Shore of Maryland according to Orioles' specifications.

The 46,500 seats with no obstructions will include some 2,000 modestly priced bleacher seats. An estimated 72 private box suites, and approximately 5,000 "club" seats will be offered to subscribers on a long-term basis.

The landmark B&O Railroad warehouse, 1,016 feet long and 51 feet wide, will be preserved as will the historic Camden Station (beyond centerfield at Howard & Camden streets). The warehouse will provide office space for the Orioles and the Maryland Stadium Authority, and much more. Special rooms for pre-game group entertainment and a public cafeteria for those who want to eat dinner before the game are in the plans. So are an extension of the Babe Ruth Birthplace/Baseball Center, just a few blocks away on Emory Street, and a home for the Maryland Sports Hall of Fame.

Three other ballclubs will be moving into new ballparks in the near future. The Cleveland Indians broke ground for their new downtown stadium and expect to play their first game in the 45,000-seat ballpark on opening day of 1994. The Texas Rangers also await the 1994 opening of a new stadium complex that will include a mini-shopping center. The Milwaukee Brewers have plans in the works for a new, open-air ballpark, patterned after Brooklyn's Ebbett's Field, and are targeting Opening Day of 1995 for completion of the stadium project. All three new parks will have natural grass fields.

MINNESOTA TWINS' KNOBLAUCH NAMED 1991 A.L. ROOKIE OF THE YEAR

Chuck Knoblauch of the World Champion Minnesota Twins was named 1991 Rookie of the Year by the Baseball Writers Association of America. The 23-year-old second baseman is the fourth Minnesota player to win the award, following Tony Oliva (1964), Rod Carew (1967) and co-winner John Castino (1979).

Knoblauch, the Twins' first-round pick in the June 1989 free agent draft, finished the balloting with 136 points. He received 26 of a possible 28 first-place votes from the BBWAA. Juan Guzman of Toronto amassed 68 points to place second, while Detroit outfielder Milt Cuyler was third with 22 points.

Last season Knoblauch batted .281 with 159 hits and 25 stolen bases. He scored 78 runs and banged out 24 doubles and 6 triples.

CAL RIPKEN, JR. CAPTURES 2ND A.L. MOST VALUABLE PLAYER AWARD

For the second time in his 11-year career, Baltimore Oriole shortstop Cal Ripken, Jr. was named the American League's Most Valuable Player by the Baseball Writers Association of America. Ripken, who previously won the award in 1983, batted .323 with 210 hits, 46 doubles, 5 triples, 34 home runs, 114 RBI and a league-leading 368 total bases.

The 31-year-old Oriole placed first on 15 of the 28 BBWAA ballots cast. Detroit Tiger first baseman Cecil Fielder was runner-up for the second consecutive year, while Chicago White Sox slugger Frank Thomas finished third.

Ripken's second MVP award capped a season which saw the shortstop extend his consecutive games played streak to 1573, second in M.L. history to Lou Gehrig's 2130. Also the MVP of the All-Star Game, Cal became the first player to win the A.L. MVP while playing for a sixth-place club. No one has ever won the MVP from a club finishing in a lower position.

RYAN, HENDERSON MAKE HISTORY

May 1, 1991: One day, two historic events. In an afternoon game versus the New York Yankees, Oakland's Rickey Henderson recorded his Major League record 939th stolen base. Henderson, in his 13th season, stole third base against the battery of Tim Leary and Matt Nokes to pass Hall of Famer Lou Brock and become the all-time leader.

The 33-year-old outfielder, who also holds the M.L. mark for stolen bases in a season (130 in 1982), finished 1991 with 994 career steals.

Later that night in Texas, Ranger fireballer Nolan Ryan followed up Henderson's heroics with an amazing performance of his own. The 44-year-old righthander tossed his record seventh no-hitter in Texas' 3-0 victory over Toronto. Ryan struck out 16 Blue Jays, while walking only two.

The all-time strikeout leader with 5,511, Nolan has now thrown three more no-hitters than anyone else in history. Los Angeles Dodger great Sandy Koufax is in second place all-time with four. Ryan has also pitched 12 one-hit games during his career.

Two superstars, two record-setting performances, one memorable day.

Cecil Fielder of Detroit, who shared the 1991 Major League home run title with Oakland's Jose Canseco, has hit an astounding 95 homers over the past two seasons.

WINFIELD BLASTS 400TH CAREER HR; CANSECO, FIELDER SHARE A.L. TITLE

Veteran slugger Dave Winfield hit career home run number 400 for California off of Minnesota's David West on August 14, 1991. Winfield, who signed with the Toronto Blue Jays during the winter, finished the season with 406 homers, in 23rd place on the all-time list. The 40-year-old outfielder also ranks among the top 25 in M.L. history in RBI (19th—1602) and at bats (24th—9464).

Cecil Fielder of Detroit and Oakland's Jose Canseco both belted 44 round trippers in 1991 to grab a share of the Major League home run title. It marked the second such title for each player. Canseco hit a league-leading 42 HR's in 1988, while Fielder blasted a league-best 51 in 1990.

A.L. WINS FOURTH STRAIGHT MID-SUMMER CLASSIC

On July 9, the American League defeated the National League 4-2 at Toronto's SkyDome in the 62nd annual All-Star Game. The victory was the A.L.'s fourth straight and fifth in six years.

Cal Ripken, Jr. of Baltimore went 2-3, including a three-run homer off Montreal's Dennis Martinez in the third inning. Ripken was named MVP for his efforts. The shortstop's award-winning performance followed his equally impressive showing in the home run contest the previous day. Ripken hit 12 home runs in 20 chances to take the Major League title.

A pair of Oakland Athletics enjoyed historic All-Star games as well. A.L. Manager Tony La Russa became the first skipper to lead three consecutive All-Star squads to victory, while reliever Dennis Eckersley "saved" an unprecedented third straight All-Star Game.

RULE CHANGE—THE DISABLED LIST

On August 10, 1990, the Regular (21 day minimum) and the Special (30 day minimum) disabled lists were eliminated. There will now only be two disabled lists, the Supplemental (15 day minimum) and the Emergency (60 day minimum). The Supplemental Disabled List may now be used for an unlimited number of players. The Emergency Disabled List can only be used if the club is at the maximum limit of 40 players.
